

The Queenslander Pictorial.

"GRANNY"

One of the 15" howitzers (famously called "Granny") used to support the Australian Infantry in the recent battle.
Australian Official Photo copyright

QUEENSLANDER
P.3
MAR 11 1916

WITH THE AUSTRALIANS ON THE WEST FRONT.

1990年12月15日

LIEUT. "DOC" CONLISKAR, M.C.
Recently Accused in the King-
don "Lindbergh" Case.

PRIVATE J. B. BAINE,
Son of Mrs. E. B. Baine, 1110
N. 1st St., N. W., Wash., D.C.
Accused in the Lindbergh case.

A BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF THE CRASH SITE IN THE CARROLL COUNTY.

A German aircraft, flying over the Maryland, took this photograph. The plane was subsequently brought down and the wreckage and the photograph captured by the U.S. Army.

MRS. W. C. L. EYER,
Mother of the

HARRY ALMYR LINDER,
of Chicago, Illinois, an aviation pilot who, with his wife, and son, were taken to the plane. He has been arrested.

Where the car ran off the Tolleran road, near the crash.

A SENSATIONAL MOTOR
ACCIDENT. See Page 29.

The large crowd which the car pulled.

The wreck the car jumped the big log.

and collapsed, broke.

As the car was left off it.

IN THE BRITISH SOLOMONS.

The jail of Tulagi.

Indigenous boys on a plantation.

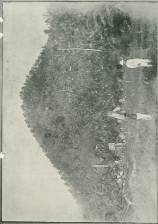

A street in Tulagi, the seat of Administration.

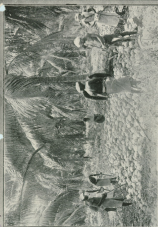

Another group of indigenous laborers.

SEE PAGE 12.

THE OVERSEAS, 1930.

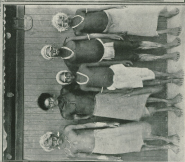

A mountain of coconuts

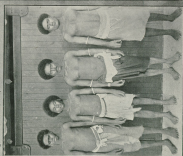

Thirteen U. S. Colonists in four groups

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and Group, Haining Bridle, U.S. Plantation, near, owned by an American Company, see above of the forest in the background

New material - Daga just recruited for labor

Indigenous Daga on a plantation

ON THE WEST FRONT.

Australian soldiers in the trenches.

"Gas" Australian troops with respirators in the advanced trenches.

German prisoners being escorted as stretcher-bearers bring in wounded.

IN PARADISE TOWN.

This man, who looks like an Arab from the Nile, is a noble captured in Sudanese drab, taken only last year.
—A. J. Carter photo.

MR. ALFRED WRIGHT,
son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wright,
Bristol, killed in action in France,
March 12.

MR. CHARLES S. YOUNG,
son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young,
Chicago, killed in action in France,
April 12.

DAUGHTERS OF THE SILLABON.

A group taken in Egypt, showing the mother of an "Abdullah" girl, in the land of the Pharaohs today.
—A. J. Carter photo.

A FAREWELL MARCH OF GREENGLASS VOLUNTEERS.

Volunteers making their last public appearance in Belfast before being sent to the front. The troops marching along Foster's Road.

—P. W. Hill photo.

